Dear Mr. Steadman:

I am sorry that I was unable to join you at the Dinner Dance that the American Bar's Section of Corporation, Banking and Business Law held at the Shoreham on August 29th. The dinner I was attending did not break up until midnight and I was therefore unable to make it.

I greatly appreciate your kind comment about my talk.

With every best wish.

Sincerely,

The Honorable Allen W. Dulles
Director of Central Intelligence
Washington 25, D. C.

Dear Mr. Dulles:

I have the pleasure of sending to you herewith your ticket for the Dinner Dance of the American Bar's Section of Corporation, Banking and Business Law. This will be on the Terrace at The Shoreham this evening at seven o'clock, and will continue until 12:30 a.m. We are delighted that you will be able to join us after your engagement at the French Embassy and we are most certainly looking forward to seeing you this evening. Please come directly to Table No.
28 on the Terrace.

Again, let me express the deep appreciation and esteem for your addressing our meeting this morning. You have done all of us a great service and added immeasurable stature to our work.

Sincerely,

Charles W. Steadman
